WELCOME TO HOMELANDS

Welcome to Homelands for our pre-season fixtures against Canterbury City and Deal Town.

Our thanks to both for bringing their respective Premier Division sides down play us – while minutes in the tank and performances are more important at this stage, the games will provide a useful barometer on the level we're looking to aspire to.

We're delighted to have retained the majority of last season's squad, supplemented by quality additions in the likes of defender Harry Stow from Redhill, and midfielders Charlie Owen – previously of Hythe Town and Faversham Town; and Jordan Harris, returning to the club after spell away studying at Roehampton University. With four promotion places on offer this season, there's a great incentive for us to go one better, in what was a fantastic first year for the club at Step 6.

The playing management has also been added to, with Ollie Finch – who will be familiar to Deal supporters – joining as first team coach; while former Croydon, Ashford United and Lydd Town shot-stopper, Dan Cook comes in as goalkeeper coach.
Welcome both!

Off the field, we're pleased to welcome Simon Jasinski to the club's committee – Simon has led a makeover of our website, alongside this programme in conjunction with FootiePrint.
co.uk, while also engaged our local councils to pursue grant funding.

This season will see us compete in the FA Vase for the very first time – with an away trip against former winners, Epsom & Ewell to look forward to on August 31. Our inclusion in the competition is certainly proud recognition for how far we've come in the last couple of years.

We're indebted to Don Crosbie and Ashford United Football Club, who give us the platform to play our football at senior level as their continued tenants here at Homelands, and are delighted to have extended our arrangement with Don over the summer for a further two seasons.

Ironically both our opponents have first hand experience of the Vase's impact, with Canterbury last season's semi-finalists and Deal winning the competition in 1999/00 – the last final held at the 'old' Wembley Stadium. Enjoy the game(s).
